Fiscal Data: Budgets and audits are available upon request.

Remarks:

Currently, the only active zone of benefit consists of the North Vineyard Station Specific Plan area. Conditions of approval for the Elverta Specific Plan and Easton projects require future annexation to CSA No. 10.

Historical and Political Data:

1. Established on May 13, 2003, to provide extended transportation and related services for new development to comply with air quality control measures.
2. Enabling Act: Government Code Section 25210.
3. Governing Body: Board of Supervisors.
4. LAFCo amended the CSA No. 10 Sphere of Influence on April 5, 2006, and approved the annexation of the North Vineyard Station Specific Plan area as Benefit Zone No. 3 of CSA No. 10. Extended transportation services for Benefit Zone No. 3 are under development. Property owners are subject to an annual service charge.
5. City of Rancho Cordova portions of CSA No. 10 detached effective on December 31, 2007, pursuant to LAFCo Resolution No. 1342. The unincorporated portion of the Mather Field Specific Plan remains an inactive part of CS No. 10.
